College Study Abroad can be an exciting, enriching, and eye-opening experience where learning extends well beyond the classroom walls. A student who is receptive to new cultural experiences and interested in broadening his or her horizons should consider such an opportunity. Study Abroad requires a mature level of personal commitment and responsibility, independence, attention to detail, and acceptance of new and different ways of living. If you bring these qualities to studying abroad, the experience will be an invaluable one.

BENEFITS OF STUDY ABROAD

Academic Commitment & Career Development

The experience of learning in a new and different academic environment results not only in enhanced interest in academic study, but also influences subsequent educational experiences. Students return from study abroad with a reinforced commitment to foreign language study and develop or enhance their intercultural competencies and skills. These skills are valued by both employers and professional/graduate schools and include cross-cultural communication skills, analytical skills, an understanding of cultural contexts, flexibility, resilience, and the ability to deal constructively with differences.

Personal Growth

Perhaps the most commonly cited benefit of study abroad centers around self-awareness and identity. These areas of personal growth include increased self-confidence and maturity, intercultural development and impact ones world view. The experience of being a 'foreigner' results in knowledge of how another culture approaches everyday tasks and challenges, which in turn develops a broader understanding of the US personally and globally.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES & HINTS

Intercultural Student Life and Global Programming Office

The Intercultural Student Life and Global Programming (ISLGP) office provides educational and social programs related to diversity, multicultural affairs and cultural awareness for the student body, leading to the holistic development of students. The office also works closely with all students in their transition to York College.

Study Abroad Information & Resources

Students interested in study abroad should attend the Global Education Fair in the fall, Around the World in the spring, and/or a Study Abroad Information Session offered by Global Affairs regularly throughout the academic year. These sessions are the best place to start the study abroad research and selection process. The Career Development Center (CH200, off the Campbell Hall Lobby) also offers resource materials and feedback from York College students who have studied abroad, as well as information on Cultural Experiences Abroad programs and the Basic Facts on Study Abroad brochure.

Program of Study & Academic Credit

Always try to save some free electives or general education requirements – as these are the easiest courses to find and take while abroad.

Plan Ahead

Start researching study abroad early so you have the most options available to you. Keep in mind that there are thousands of programs to choose from, so a thorough search will take time.

DETAILED PROCESS FOR STUDY ABROAD

Whatever program a student selects, Study Abroad can be one of the most rewarding experiences in a student's college career. Complete the steps on the following pages carefully allowing considerable time for each step in the process.

PHASE 1: DETERMINE GOALS AND FEASIBILITY

This is a critical step that requires self-assessment. It's easy to want to study abroad for fairly superficial reasons, however a more detailed analysis of yourself will result in a deeper and more comprehensive study abroad experience and greater personal and academic rewards.

Step 1: Why do you want to go?

The first step is to determine and understand your goals and motivations to study abroad. Some possible goals include: improve language skills, learn about another culture, enhance your education, gain an experience not available at home campus, take unique courses toward your major/minor, etc. Keep in mind that you will likely have a number of goals, and each of them will have levels or choices involved.

Step 2: How will study abroad fit into your academic plan/program?

Knowing exactly where you are in your academic program and having a roadmap through graduation is an essential step in the study abroad process because the courses you take abroad will need to transfer back to your York College transcript. Only once you have developed this plan will you be able to determine the feasibility and timing of study abroad for you.

Will you be able to fulfill general education, major, or minor requirements while abroad, or will the credits go toward free electives? Each student will be at a different place in their program requirements based upon their major/minor as well as the courses they have already completed. Complete a CAPP Degree Evaluation (through portal, YCPWeb, under Student Services, Student Records) to verify academic program requirements. Once you have mapped this out, meet with your academic advisor to verify your plan and discuss any questions that arise during the process.

Step 3: When will you go?

Based upon the previous step, you can determine if going abroad will alter your graduation plans, or if you can select a program and time frame that fits with your current graduation date. This is an important factor that should consider the type of experience most appropriate for one's goals, needs, and interest. Programs vary by length of time, credits earned, and amount of cultural immersion. Please note it is possible to participate in more than one of these experiences during your time at York College.

- Short-Term Opportunities: There are York College Courses with Short-Term Study Abroad Component, as well as independent short-term programs. A Faculty-led Short-Term Program combines coursework with international travel. These courses may be offered during minimester, a summer session, or during the fall/spring semester; the international travel component varies from 1-3 weeks.
- Summer Programs: Take 1-3 courses while living abroad and transfer the credits back to York College. Programs range from 4-6 weeks in duration.
- Semester Programs: Spend a full semester studying and living abroad, then transfer credits back to York College.
- Full Year Programs: Spend a full academic year abroad, then transfer credits back to York College.

PHASE 2: RESEARCH POTENTIAL PROGRAMS

Step 1: Where

Once you have determined your primary goals and the program length, it's time to identify the best program for you.

There are thousands of study abroad programs, and you need to determine which one meets your needs most effectively. You'll want to learn more about the countries you are considering, and in many case expand your research to cities within each country to identify locations that will complement your goals. Sources include:

- AAA tour books and travel guides (Free to members)
- US State Department information and travel advisories (<http://travel.state.gov>)

Step 2: What Program

Most program websites include course listings that will enable you to see courses typically offered and begin to determine how they would transfer back to York College and your academic program requirements. Resources to research programs:

- Studyabroad.com
- Study Abroad Surveys from past participants (in Career Development Center)
- Fall Semester Global Education Fair & Study Abroad Information Sessions
- Cultural Experiences Abroad offers programs to 12 countries (www.ceastudyabroad.com)

Step 3: Costs

Don't forget to consider and compare program costs as well as the resources, services, and staff they provide. Fall and Spring programs allow you to utilize your federal and state financial aid. Summer programs are considered out-of-pocket expenses, but tend to be priced lower due to the shorter time frame and number of credits received. York College institutional aid (scholarships & grants) may not be used for study away from York College. Please contact Financial Aid to determine if these scholarships will resume upon your return to York College.

PHASE 3: APPROVAL FOR ACADEMIC CREDIT

*You may apply to your study abroad program before completing your approval for academic credit, but we recommend checking course offerings beforehand, especially in cases where there may be an application fee.

Step 1: Request for Off-Campus Study Approval Form

Obtain a Request for Off-Campus Study Approval Form (available through Registrar's Office, Career Development Center, and on the website). Based on the program you've chosen, review possible coursework abroad and write down those you're interested in either on the form or a separate sheet (including the necessary information). We recommend listing more courses than planned in case of placement or space issues. If you do not plan to have this program count for academic credit, please still meet with your advisor to determine how it fits in your program of study.

http://www.ycp.edu/media/york-website/registrar/request\_for\_offcampus.pdf

Step 2: Meet with Advisor

With the form, meet with your academic advisor to discuss your plan and connect those courses to your York College requirements. By running a CAPP Degree Evaluation, you and your advisor can see which courses are still needed for your degree, along with open electives and general education requirements that study abroad courses may count toward.

Step 3: Meet with Registrar's Office

Once you and your advisor have agreed, make an appointment to submit the form to the Registrar's Office. Kathy Shaub in the Registrar's Office will officially evaluate the transfer credits for York College, and your completion of the form will confirm this process. This form is meant to ensure that you will receive transfer credits (TR) for your courses abroad so long as you meet the conditions outlined in the Request for Off-Campus Study Approval Form. Please note that the Final 30 Credit Residency Requirement will be waived in cases of Study Abroad.

PHASE 4: APPLY

Once you have determined the appropriate program for you, how the credits will apply to your York College program, and are comfortable with the costs, you need to follow the application process specified by the program.

PHASE 5: YORK COLLEGE REQUIREMENTS

- Complete Request for Off-Campus Study Approval Form and make an appointment with Kathy Shaub in the Registrar's Office to submit it and discuss registration. (Miller Administration Building Room 32, 717-815-1448, kshaub@ycp.edu)
- Pay the $100 Study Abroad Fee to the Business Office (The above are required for all Study Abroad except York College Short-Term Study Abroad Courses)
- If program is directly affiliated with York College, sign and submit York College Authorization and Release Form for Trips to Annie Nguyen, Coordinator of Study Abroad & Global Education. (Campbell Hall 200A, 717-815-2238, anguyen10@ycp.edu)
- Upon return, request your transcripts be sent to the Registrar's Office:
Registrar's Office – Kathy Shaub
York College of Pennsylvania
441 Country Club Road
York, PA 17403
USA

PHASE 6: PREPARATION

- Passport. Obtain passport (allow for minimum 6-8 weeks processing time). Consider having at least one other family member obtain a passport in case of emergency.
- Visa. Research visa or other related requirements (set by the country in which you will be studying).
- Health and Safety. Read Health and Safety Guidelines very carefully to know your responsibility and liability. Check health insurance for international coverage (supplemental insurance coverage is usually required by sponsoring institution). Obtain appropriate supplies of prescription medication, as needed.
- Travel Arrangements. Make flight and other travel arrangements either on your own or through a travel agent (some specialize in student foreign travel). Begin 4-6 months in advance of departure.
- Paperwork. Complete the appropriate paperwork and forms required by your study abroad program. Make multiple copies (at least 5 each) of passport, student photo ID, credit cards, etc. Consider purchasing an international student ID & discount card. There are a number of options that provide travel insurance, discounts, and other benefits.
- Packing. Read packing guidelines and recommendations for your program.
- Research. Read all you can about the country/region, history and culture where you will be studying. As needed, obtain compact/travel guides and language (e-)books.
- YCP Contact. Keep in touch with YCP Associate Registrar and Residence Life Office while abroad for course selection and housing for your next semester at York College.
- State Department Registration. We strongly recommend you register your travel plans by enrolling in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP: <https://step.state.gov/step/>). STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency.
- Prepare, prepare, prepare. Pay attention to deadlines and details.
